

NC STATE UNIVERSITY

GO
COMPETE

North Carolina State University is an institution where all students and employees are free to live, work, play, empower, learn, create and compete. Under Title IX, sex discrimination is prohibited in all NC State programs and activities, including recruitment, admissions, financial assistance, housing, access to academic offerings and athletics.

Title IX protects all community members from sex discrimination, including (but not limited to) women, men, pregnant and parenting individuals, transgender and gender nonconforming individuals, and individuals who have experienced sexual or relationship violence.

YOU are a critical part in the prevention of sex discrimination at NC State.
