

NC STATE UNIVERSITY

Campus and Community Resources

Supporting the Safety and Well-Being of the Wolfpack

The resources detailed in this document provide information and support to members of the Wolfpack. Details include who the resource serves, services available and contact details. Non-confidential resources in this list may have an obligation to report incidences of violence, including sexual and interpersonal violence to appropriate contacts on a need-to-know basis. Please note, resources identified with an * are confidential.

University Reporting and Response

The resources listed below are able to receive and respond to reports of concerning behavior or misconduct of NC State students, employees, guests or visitors:

Office of Equal Opportunity

equalopportunity.ncsu.edu | 919.513.0574

Provides support, resources, and response regarding reports of discrimination, harassment and retaliation based on protected status (age, color, disability, genetic information, actual and perceived gender identity, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation and veteran status). An anonymous reporting option is also available.

Disability Resource Office

dro.equalopportunity.ncsu.edu | 919.515.7653

Determines reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. DRO may also assist students navigating temporary impairments.

Employee Relations

hr.ncsu.edu/employee-resources/employee-relations | 919.515.6575

Provides consultation, support, and assistance regarding a wide range of individual employment or organizational effectiveness needs.

Office of Student Conduct

studentconduct.dasa.ncsu.edu | 919.515.2963

Facilitates a culture of accountability through shared ownership of NC State's community standards. We support academic excellence, encourage responsible decision-making, and promote the safety and well-being of our community. Through a fair and equitable resolution process, we educate students on the impact of their conduct and attempt to affect behavioral change.

Violence Prevention and Threat Management

go.ncsu.edu/risk-assessment | 919.513.4224 or 919.513.4315

Provides support and intervention to the NC State University community by working collaboratively with campus partners through the University Behavior Assessment Team (BAT) in identifying, deescalating, and decreasing potentially violent activity from occurring on campus. Services include, but are not limited to, assessing reported incidents of concerning behavior, threat/case management, and safety planning.

Off-Campus Community Support

The following community resources support all NC State students, employees, guests, and visitors:

Healing Transitions*

healing-transitions.org | 919.838.9800

Serves the homeless and uninsured with alcoholism and other drug addictions.

InterAct*

interactofwake.org | 919.828.7740

Offers crisis counseling, information, assistance with shelter, emotional support, support groups, advocacy, assistance with domestic violence protective orders and criminal charges, court assistance, and referrals to other agencies.

Solace Center*

interactofwake.org/whatwedo/the-solace-center
866.291.0854 or 919.828.3067

Designated area for the forensic examination and treatment of survivors of sexual violence. Is not affiliated with NC State University.

Wake County District Attorney's Office

www.nccourts.gov/locations/wake-county 919.792.4000

Includes information about the Wake County Justice Center and court services.

Emergency Assistance and Crisis Intervention

Provides support to all NC State students, employees, guests, and visitors:

University Police

police.ehps.ncsu.edu

911 for emergencies or 919.515.3000 for non-emergencies

Provides response and support to the NC State University community for campus emergencies, investigates crimes, patrol campus and provides other safety-related services including safety escorts.

On-Campus Community Support

The following resources provide an array of support for NC State Students.

Jeffrey Wright Military and Veteran Services

veterans.ncsu.edu | 919.515.5041

A centralized resource and service center for all military-affiliated students including current and former military members, spouses, and dependents.

Office of International Services

internationalservices.ncsu.edu | 919.515.2961

A resource office for international students, scholars, and dependents that provides immigration advising, support services, and cultural programming.

Prevention Services

prevention.dasa.ncsu.edu | 919.515.4405

Provides case management, educational training and outreach emphasizing inclusive, developmental, and non-judgmental perspective for student prevention efforts. Primary focus areas include resourcing students in distress and exhibiting concerning behaviors, alcohol and other drug harm reduction strategies, recovery services, overall mental health and resiliency education and suicide prevention training.

Resiliency and Community Support

osla.dasa.ncsu.edu

Supports the student experience by aligning several programs and functions that support student well-being, sense of belonging, and promote a supportive, safe campus environment. These include the Feed the Pack Food Pantry, Pack Essentials, Written Student Complaints, Wolfpack Pickup Program, Off-Campus Student Needs, and the Absence Verification Process. Support campus resilience operations in response to emergency and crisis situations.

Respondent Services

equalopportunity.ncsu.edu/respondent-resources | 919.515.4405

Provides support to individuals accused of engaging in sexual harassment or interpersonal violence (relationship violence, sexual assault, stalking, etc.) in understanding resolution processes and assisting with supportive measures.

Sexual Assault Helpline

go.ncsu.edu/supportsurvivors | 919.515.4444
ncsuadvocate@ncsu.edu

Provides crisis intervention, emotional support, resources, and referrals 24/7/365 to members of the campus community impacted by dating violence, sexual violence, stalking and other forms of interpersonal violence.

Student Well-Being

go.ncsu.edu/wellbeing | 919.515.2446

The Division of Academic and Student Affairs leads and supports universitywide efforts to welcome and serve students of all backgrounds through various programs, initiatives, drop in spaces, and learning opportunities.

University Housing

housing.dasa.ncsu.edu | 919.515.2440

Provides support to the residential community through a 24-hour on-call system. Housing staff is trained to assist residents living on-campus with a variety of concerns and to refer to necessary resources. University Housing assists with emergency spaces for all students who meet the criteria as space permits.

Women's Center

go.ncsu.edu/supportsurvivors | 919.515.4444

Provides support to survivors of interpersonal violence (relationship violence, sexual assault, stalking, etc.) in understanding their options for supportive measures and resolution processes in addition to navigating healing and recovery. Services are available to all students.

Confidential Assistance and Support

The following resources provide confidential support to NC State students or employees:

Campus Health*

healthypack.dasa.ncsu.edu | 919.935.2563

Meets the health needs of NC State University Students by providing affordable, on-campus access to top-quality medical care from highly qualified professionals including primary care, gynecology services, pharmacy support, nutritional counseling, physical therapy, and other general and specialty services.

Faculty and Staff Assistance Program*

guidanceresources.com

Web ID: FASAP | 866.467.0467 | TDD: 800.697.0353

Provides NC State University employees and their dependents with confidential emotional support, work-life solutions, legal guidance, financial resources, and online support.

Faculty and Staff Ombuds Office*

go.ncsu.edu/facstaffombuds | 919.515.7685

Assists NC State faculty and staff in resolving issues, concerns, and conflicts related to their university working environment. Provides information and identifies resources to strengthen work relationships, support constructive problem solving, and inform decision making.

NC State Counseling Center*

counseling.dasa.ncsu.edu | 919.515.2423

Utilizes a Stepped Care approach to connect NC State students with services which may include: referral to additional supports and resources, workshops, drop-in spaces, groups, short term individual therapy, psychiatric services, or assistance with referrals for off-campus services. Call 24/7/365 for mental health emergencies.

Student Ombuds Office*

students-ombuds@ncsu.edu | 919.513.3401

Assists NC State students in resolving issues, concerns and conflicts related to their university learning, living or employment experiences. Additionally the Ombud monitors trends impacting student success and shares recommendations with university leadership to strengthen the overall student experience.

University Student Legal Services*

studentlegal.dasa.ncsu.edu | 919.515.7091

Provides NC State University students with education, advice, and representation within the scope of the prepaid student legal services plan, including employment, tenant/landlord issues, domestic concerns, immigration, and advice regarding criminal matters.